

2009 Maryland Assessment Group Conference

Challenge 2014 – Reaching the Goal with Declining Resources

Clarion Hotel and Conference Center
Ocean City, MD
November 18 – 20, 2009

Website for Info and Registration:
www.magonline.org

Do you want the latest information on Assessment, Accountability, Data, and their relationship to Instruction in MD?

Presenters include representatives from the Maryland State Department of Education, College Board, and other educational agencies. Some of the scheduled presentations are highlighted below:

- New Initiatives: Race to the Top, National Standards Movement, National Assessments
- STC 101 - Helping your School Make AYP
- Lessons Learned from the Bridge Plan for Academic Validation
- Comparability of Computer and Paper HSA Tests for May 2009
- Advantages of Computerized Adaptive Testing
- Utilizing Item Response Theory to Build More Effective Assessments
- Best Practices: Implementing State Assessments Online
- Selecting, Administering, and Evaluating the Use of Accommodations for Instruction and Assessment
- Preview of the Alternate Maryland School Assessment (Alt-MSA) Professional Development Online Training Modules
- Developing a Middle School Data Culture
- Five Effective and Essential Practices for empowering ELL's in Mathematics
- Online Testing for Local Assessments
- Performance Pay: The More they Learn, The More you Earn!
- Making AYP in Subgroups: Best Practices in Special Ed, Title III, and Other Challenging Populations Improving Minority Student Performance on PSAT, SAT, AP

Registration and conference information can be found at: www.magonline.org.

Maryland Assessment Group
P.O. Box 208
West Friendship, MD 21794-0208

Contact Information
Phone: 443-266-7333
E-mail: juliankatz1@comcast.net